TO BE IMPRISONED FOR LIFE.

George Ashton Sentenced by Justice
George Ashton, colored, who was convicted a few days ago of the murder of Ida Jackson, was sentenced to the Moundsville (W. Va.) penitentiary for life this morning by Justice Claiborne.
The prisoner was found guilty of as cruel a murder as was ever committed in the District. He and his victim, it was shown at the trial, had been friends for a long time, and on the day the woman was killed they had been drinking together. A quarrel ensued over the attentions of another man to the Jackson woman, and Ashton, it is stated, knocked her down with his fist and then stamped her to death with a pair of heavy shoes he wore.
For some reason, which those who heard the testimony could not understand, the jury in finding the man guilty, accompanied this verdict, as is their right, with the direction that he be sentenced to imprisonment for life instead of imposing the death penalty.

Coroner Carr had viewed the remains and after issuing a certificate of death by suicide. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. They are in charge of the widow of the deceased and Mr. Parsons, her brother-in-law, whose home is in Brightwood Avenue. Green was thirty-five years old and formerly lived at Fort Wayne, Ind.
